ABOUT THE PROGRAM

For current UCLA students, the Bachelor of Arts in Film and Television is a two year, upper division program for those who have completed two years of general college studies. The Department of Film, Television, & Digital Media (FTVDM) admits new students only once each year for the Fall Quarter.

ABOUT APPLICATIONS

Together, all of the application materials will provide the admissions committee a clear and compelling picture of who you are. The application materials should include your significant life experiences, your most important personal traits and greatest strengths, your special creative talents, your values and goals in life, and your vision for the kind of work you hope to pursue.

An applicant should demonstrate a strong liberal arts and humanistic education, exceptional literacy, outstanding communication skills, and unique creative ability. Prior experience in film and television is not required.

WE DO NOT ACCEPT FILMS, DVDs, OR CDs.

As the number of qualified applicants far exceeds the number who can be accepted, students are encouraged to have alternate plans in the event they are not admitted.

Applicants must submit all required application materials to be considered for admission.

  - Personal Essay (2 page max).
    - The personal essay should include a summary of your background, creative interests, academic and professional goals. The personal essay may include unusual life experiences, important influences in your life, your motivation to study film and television, and the kind of creative work you hope to pursue. Do not use the personal essay to flatter us; use these few pages to create a very personal and vivid picture of yourself, what is most important to you, and your creative and professional goals.
Life Challenge Essay (2 page max).

- Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement? Things to consider: A challenge could be personal, or something you have faced in your community or school. Why was the challenge significant to you? This is a good opportunity to talk about any obstacles you’ve faced and what you’ve learned from the experience. Did you have support from someone else or did you handle it alone? If you’re currently working your way through a challenge, what are you doing now, and does that affect different aspects of your life? For example, ask yourself, “How has my life changed at home, at my school, with my friends, or with my family?”

Critical Essay (3 page max).

- The critical essay is your analysis of a film or television program. This essay is NOT a review. You should assume the reader has seen the work you are discussing; do not include a plot summary. This essay is similar to what you would write in an English literature or film history course. It is your analysis of any aspect(s) of the work you have selected: the use of design, composition, color, lighting, sound, etc. as it relates to social observation or commentary, moral or philosophical elements, psychological aspects or relationships of the characters, dramatic structure, etc.

Creative Writing (5 page max).

- You may submit any one kind or combination of creative writing: a short story, a film treatment, a storyboard, a script or play excerpt (including a short synopsis of the complete script), etc. Those interested in submitting poetry, photographs, and/or drawings must submit one other type of creative work. The total of all submitted creative writing combined cannot exceed the 5 page maximum. No preference is given to one type of creative work over another. DO NOT SUBMIT FILMS, DVDS, or CDS.

Submit Two LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION.

- Include a Waiver of Access Form with each Letter of Recommendation.
- Letters should be from individuals who know you well: a teacher, an employer, or someone in a position of leadership or responsibility with substantial knowledge of your personal qualities and capabilities. Avoid asking family, friends, and/or prominent public figures who may not know you as well as a teacher or employer. You want to find those who can best tell us what is unique, remarkable, and admirable about you and your abilities, based upon their personal experience. Do not submit more than two letters of recommendation.

Submit Academic Records.

- Upload UNOFFICIAL copies of UCLA TRANSCRIPTS.
- Indicate your Current Cumulative GPA.
