ABOUT THE PROGRAM

For transfer students, the Bachelor of Arts in Film and Television is a two year, upper division program for those who have completed two years of general college studies. The Department of Film, Television, & Digital Media (FTVDM) admits new students only once each year for the Fall Quarter.

ABOUT APPLICATIONS

Together, all of the application materials will provide the admissions committee a clear and compelling picture of who you are. The application materials should include your significant life experiences, your most important personal traits and greatest strengths, your special creative talents, your values and goals in life, and your vision for the kind of work you hope to pursue.

An applicant should demonstrate a strong liberal arts and humanistic education, exceptional literacy, outstanding communication skills, and unique creative ability. Prior experience in film and television is not required.

WE DO NOT ACCEPT FILMS, DVDs, OR CDs.

As the number of qualified applicants far exceeds the number who can be accepted, students are encouraged to have alternate plans in the event they are not admitted.

Applicants must submit all required application materials to be considered for admission.

All Supplemental Materials must be double-spaced, 12 point font, use 8½ by 11 page size, and not exceed the indicated page maximum. If you do not follow these guidelines, your application will not be considered.

  o Personal Essay (2 page max).
    • The personal essay should include a summary of your background, creative interests, academic and professional goals. The personal essay may include unusual life experiences, important influences in your life, your motivation to study film and television, and the kind of creative work you hope to pursue. Do not use the personal essay to flatter us; use these few pages to create a very personal and vivid picture of yourself, what is most important to you, and your creative and professional goals.

  o Critical Essay (3 page max).
    • The critical essay is your analysis of a film or television program. This essay is not a review. You should assume the reader has seen the work you are discussing; do not include a plot summary. This essay is similar to what you would write in an English literature or film history course. It is your analysis of any aspect(s) of the work you have selected: social observation or commentary, moral or philosophical elements, psychological aspects or relationships of the characters, dramatic structure, the use of design, composition, color, lighting, sound, etc.

  o Creative Writing (5 page max).
    • You may submit any kind of creative writing: a short story, a treatment for a film, a script or play excerpt (which must be typed in standard script format and include a short synopsis of the complete script), a storyboard, poetry (those submitting poetry must submit one other kind of creative work as well), or any combination. You may also include photographs and drawings with your creative writing up to the 5 page maximum. No preference is given to one type of creative work over another. (Five pages maximum) DO NOT SUBMIT FILMS, DVDS, or CDS.

• Submit Two LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION.
  o Include a WAIVER OF ACCESS FORM with each LETTER OR RECOMMENDATION.
  o Letters should be from individuals who know you well: a teacher, an employer, or someone in a position of leadership or responsibility with substantial knowledge of your personal qualities and capabilities. Avoid asking family friends and/or prominent public figures who may not know you as well as a teacher or employer. You want to find those who can best tell us what is unusual, remarkable, and admirable about you and your abilities, based upon their personal experience. Do not submit more than two letters of recommendation.
• Mail UNOFFICIAL copies of all TRANSCRIPTS.
  o Mail copies of all college transcripts.
  o Many institutions allow access to records online, where students can print or save unofficial copies.
