

SCREENWRITING ADMISSIONS

Film and Television MFA Program

About the Program

The two-year Film and Television MFA degree in Screenwriting seeks to identify and nurture the most exciting, innovative, diverse and distinct screenwriting voices in a supportive, safe environment that enables students to explore and experiment with form and subject matter. Students are challenged to succeed through risking failure, to engage with other art forms in order to better understand the art of screenwriting, to cultivate a curiosity in global art, to develop critical thinking skills to aid in the analysis of their scripts, and to provide an ethical foundation in building a career path.

All MFA programs in Film, Television, & Digital Media are FULL-TIME programs. The Department admits new students only once each year for the Fall Quarter.

We do not accept Films, DVDs, or Links.

Applicants must submit all required application materials to be considered for admission.

Additional Information & Resources

International Students

For more information on requirements and applying to UCLA as an International Student, visit <http://grad.ucla.edu/gasaa/admissions/INTLREQT.HTM>.

English Proficiency: Any international applicant whose first language is not English must certify proficiency in English when applying to UCLA, and, if admitted, upon arrival. Such applicants must submit scores received on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) as part of their application. The UCLA Code is 4837 and the Department Code is 2409. Only test scores taken by December 31, 2023 will be accepted. For more information, visit <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/english-requirements/>. International applicants who have received a Bachelor's degree from an American institution are not required to take the TOEFL.

Academic Records: Although the UCLA Graduate Division Application enables applicants to upload an unofficial copy of their academic records, all applicants are required to submit official records from each academic institution attended. For more information, visit: <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/required-academic-records/>.

Undergraduate Degree Requirement: Applicants must complete equivalent to a 4 year US Bachelor's Degree. International students who hold three-year ordinary pass degrees, or who hold professional diplomas in accounting, business, librarianship, social work, physical education, health education and so on, or four-year degrees, diplomas or higher certificates from technical, vocational or post-secondary specialized schools are NOT eligible for graduate admission. For Academic Requirements by Country or Educational System, visit: <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/required-academic-records/>.

Proof of Funding for Visa: U.S. immigration law requires that international applicants, if admitted, show documented evidence that sufficient funds to cover all tuition, fees, transportation, and living expenses are available for the first year of their studies at UCLA. This must be proven before a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS2019) for a visa can be issued. For more information about this requirement, visit <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/visa-procedures/>.

FAFSA

For U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents interested in receiving financial aid in the 2024-2025 year, note that the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) deadline for UCLA is March 2, 2024.
