
PLAYWRITING ADMISSIONS

Theater MFA Program

About the Program

The UCLA Department of Theater's Playwriting program welcomes adventurous students who look forward to intensive collaboration with their peers in acting and directing.

In the first year, Playwriting, Acting and Directing students will collectively study playwriting, acting, directing, voice and movement. After the first year of study, students will be frequently brought together for further collaborative projects with their peers in acting, directing and design.

Playwriting faculty includes successful writers whose work has been produced professionally across the country.

All MFA programs in Theater are FULL-TIME programs. The Department admits new students only once each year for the Fall Quarter.

Applicants must submit all required application materials to be considered for admission.

Additional Information & Resources

International Students

For more information on requirements and applying to UCLA as an International Student, visit <http://grad.ucla.edu/gasaa/admissions/INTLREQT.HTM>.

English Proficiency: Any international applicant whose first language is not English must certify proficiency in English when applying to UCLA, and, if admitted, upon arrival. Such applicants must submit scores received on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) as part of their application. The UCLA Code is 4837 and the Department Code is 2409. Only test scores taken by December 31, 2023 will be accepted. For more information, visit <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/english-requirements/>. International applicants who have received a Bachelor's degree from an American institution are not required to take the TOEFL.

Academic Records: Although the UCLA Graduate Division Application enables applicants to upload an unofficial copy of their academic records, all applicants are required to submit official records from each academic institution attended. For more information, visit:

<https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/required-academic-records/>.

Undergraduate Degree Requirement: Applicants must complete equivalent to a 4 year US Bachelor's Degree. International students who hold three-year ordinary pass degrees, or who hold professional diplomas in accounting, business, librarianship, social work, physical education, health education and so on, or four-year degrees, diplomas or higher certificates from technical, vocational or post-secondary specialized schools are NOT eligible for graduate admission. For Academic Requirements by Country or Educational System, visit:

<https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/required-academic-records/>.

Proof of Funding for Visa: U.S. immigration law requires that international applicants, if admitted, show documented evidence that sufficient funds to cover all tuition, fees, transportation, and living expenses are available for the first year of their studies at UCLA. This must be proven before a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS2019) for a visa can be issued. For more information about this requirement, visit <https://grad.ucla.edu/admissions/visa-procedures/>.

FAFSA

For U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents interested in receiving financial aid in the 2024-2025 year, note that the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) deadline for UCLA is March 2, 2024. Applicants must complete the FAFSA by this date if they want to be eligible for all awards, work-study, and scholarships that UCLA offers. If applying after March 2, please check with the Financial Aid Office for available funding opportunities. www.financialaid.ucla.edu

DREAM Act

For non-US Citizens or non-Permanent Residents who are approved to pay in-state tuition because they graduated from a high school in California; they will need to complete the California DREAM application by the March 2, 2024 deadline. The DREAM application can be accessed at <https://dream.csac.ca.gov>. If applying after March 2, please check with the Financial Aid Office for available funding opportunities. www.financialaid.ucla.edu
